"PATCHING THINGS UP"

Universal One-Reel Comedy

Starring BERT ROACH

ASSISTED by Bert, the butler, Alice makes hubby's new suit. After Bert has had considerable difficulty threading a needle, Alice cuts out the pattern on the floor, but ruins the carpet in so doing. They take the carpet out to hang on a line, and Bert gets in a tangle with the clothes-line pole, finally attaching the line to the garage roof. He manages to pull the garage over, and has to chop it up to release his mistress, imprisoned within.

The suit finished, hubby tries it on, and finds it fits him abominably. He runs out in the street, trailing a ten-foot trouser leg behind him, and is apparently run over by a motorist, who, seeing the empty trouser leg, gives him five hundred dollars to soothe him. Bert, seeing this, lets himself get hit by a car. He demands damages and gets them—in the shape of a black eye.
